

Vocabulary
1	Fish	An animal with gills and fins that lives in water.
2	Amphibians	An animal which can live on land or in water but usually born in water.
3	Reptiles	An animal which has dry, scaly skin and lays eggs on land.
4	Birds	An animal with feathers, wings and a beak that is usually able to fly.
5	Mammals	An animal that feeds its young with milk from the mother and has skin usually more or less covered with hair.
6	Pet	A friendly animal trained to live with humans.
7	Nutrition	The food needed that is important for an animals health and growth.
8	Carnivore	Animals that eat meat.
9	Herbivore	Animals that eat plants.
10	Omnivore	Animals that eat meat and plants.

What is nutrition?

Nutrition means animals getting the food they need to grow and be healthy

What do some animals eat?

Carnivore

Some animals that eat meat :lion, tiger, brown bear.

Herbivore

Some animals that eat plants: cow, sheep, rabbit.

Omnivore

Some animals that eat meat and plants: human, pig, rat.

Different Types of Animals

Fish	Reptiles	Amphibians	Mammals	Birds
Goldfish	Snake	Frog	Human	Chicken

Shark	Lizard	Toad	Dog	Owl

Cod	Crocodile	Newt	Lion	Pigeon

How can we identify different types of animals? The facts.....

Fish

1. They are cold-blooded.
2. They live in water.
3. They breathe through gills.
4. They have fins and scales.

Reptiles

1. They are cold-blooded.
2. They lay eggs.
3. They are born on land.
4. They have scales.
5. They breathe through lungs.

Amphibians

1. They are cold-blooded.
2. They are born in water.
3. They live in water and on land.
4. They have 3 life stages: eggs, larvae and adult.

Mammals

1. They are warm-blooded.
2. Most have hair/fur.
3. They give birth to live young.
4. They produce milk to feed their young.

Birds

1. They are warm-blooded.
2. They lay eggs.
3. They often have feathers and wings.
4. Most birds can fly.

Pets

A pet is an animal that you train to keep in your home to give you company and pleasure. Different pets need different types of care. To care for a dog, you need to: make sure the dog has a comfortable place to sleep, take him/her for walks, feed him/her the right kinds of food, give him or her fresh water and get him/her checked by the vet regularly to make sure he/she is healthy.

